

Uniting Values

In addition to the organisations Strategic Ends, Vision, Mission Statements, Organisational Values and Quality Commitment, the following uniting values and behaviours are demonstrable outcomes we can foster as staff, when dealing with each other and with our community.

Professional Respect

- ❖ I will make every effort to keep current with other organisational programs and services.
- ❖ I will seek to communicate with those who can inform me and I will make it my task to actively listen to others.
- ❖ I will treat other staff with respect and empathy, acknowledge their contributions, and build on our individual relationships.

Human Fairness (integrity)

- ❖ I will consider the student's or customer's view before I act.
- ❖ I will respect the feelings, rights and differences of others. I will provide the best information I can.
- ❖ If I can assist, I will.
- ❖ I will act in an inclusive manner.

Loyalty

- ❖ I will commit myself to the purpose of the organisation.
- ❖ I will test that the things I do, are compatible with the Vision and Mission of the Albury Wodonga Community College.
- ❖ I will do the things that I have agreed will be done.
- ❖ I will be true to myself, other staff and the organisation.

Self Development

- ❖ I will strive to be successful.
- ❖ I will acknowledge when I am wrong, and learn from my mistakes.
- ❖ I will continually learn, improving my performance.
- ❖ I will consider the full range of facts before I make a decision.
